

I listen to K-Love on an FM translator. This station provides news and family friendly music to my family and the community. It would be detrimental to remove one of the very few positive radio stations on the air. The media does not provide much HELP for parents, but this station does.